Man is jailed for five years for glorifying Islamic State

A MAN has been jailed after sending a series of tweets supporting Islamic State terrorists.

Mohammed Moshin Ameen, 23, from Dagenham, was given a five-year prison term at the Old Bailey on Thursday April 28.

He had pleaded guilty in March to one count of supporting a proscribed organisation, one count of disseminating a terrorist publication and five counts of encouraging terrorism.

The Metropolitan Police Service said Ameen had sent thousands of tweets supporting Islamic State between May and October 2015, including one with a link to a Daesh propaganda video.

After seizing 90 digital devices, police found Ameen had used 42 different Twitter names and sent messages from 16 accounts.

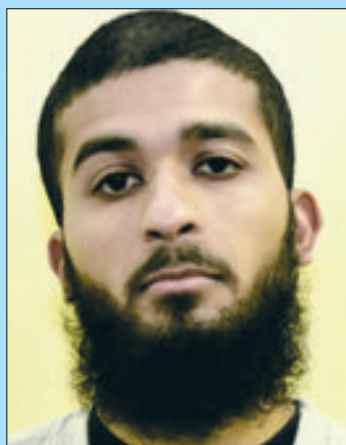

In one tweet he posted a picture of himself, with his head cropped out, holding a machete.

Commander Dean Haydon, of the force's counter terrorism command, said: "The harm of spreading hate and encouraging others to commit offences cannot be underestimated.

"I urge anyone who is aware of tweets, videos, pictures or any other material they are concerned may be terrorist propaganda to report it.

"This can be done anonymously."

CRACKDOWN ON OVERSEAS PATIENTS

Hospitals to ensure visitors pay up for any NHS treatment

By Michael Cox

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

OVERSEAS visitors face being asked to pay for NHS care at east London's three main hospitals.

A new scheme has been introduced by the trust that runs King George and Queen's hospitals to ensure that overseas visitors pay for their treatment.

Bosses at Barts Health NHS Trust, which runs Whipps Cross Hospital in Leytonstone, said the scheme is already in place.

Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust has launched a "deposit" payment system, with overseas visitors asked to pay for their treatment before they receive it.

Director of finance Jeff Bugge said: "We know that many overseas visitors who are not eligible for free care have been using our services.

"We need to ensure that our resources are spent on those patients who are eligible for NHS care and we must also comply with the rules set down by the Department of Health."

If staff suspect that a patient may not live in this country, they will be asked to prove their residency and if they are not entitled to free NHS care they will be asked to pay in advance for their treatment.

If they refuse to pay, their consultant will decide whether to discharge them.

Maternity services, and treatment which the doctor or nurse thinks is immediately necessary or urgent will never be withheld, but charges will still apply and the patient will receive an invoice after their treatment.

The trust is also implementing a process where all patients who seek any form of treatment, either urgent or non-urgent, will be asked to confirm their country of residence.

Mr Bugge added: "The safety of patients is always our top priority, but we also have a legal obligation to seek payment for those not eligible for free NHS care."

More information is available on the trust's website at bhrhospitals.nhs.uk.

COMPETITION

HOST: Supervet Noel Fitzpatrick and friends

THE prestigious Windsor Great Park, Berkshire, will stage DogFest for the first time, from June 25-26, and we have 10 pairs of tickets to give away.

Hosted by Channel 4's Supervet, Professor Noel Fitzpatrick, DogFest offers dogs and their owners the ultimate fun-filled weekend.

With even more have-a-go activities for your dog to take part in, this year's action-packed line-up includes Flyball, agility sessions, dog diving and training, plus grooming sessions and gifts and treats galore.

As well as sharing heart-warming success stories from his popular TV show and latest advances in the veterinary profession during the Eukanuba Supervet Live Tour, Noel will start The Great Dog Walk twice daily around the grounds of Arley Hall and Windsor Great Park.

Join in training workshops at Hill's School for Dogs – where even the most disobedient pet can become head pupil.

With sessions on puppy training, dog dancing and how to teach your dog to perform using props, Hill's School for Dogs can teach you all about how to train your dog.

Win tickets to DOGFEST

Throat knifer heads for 20-year jail term

A DAGENHAM man has been jailed for 20 years for attempted murder.

Tony Henry, 37, of Dagenham Avenue, was found guilty of attempted murder following a trial at Snaresbrook Crown Court.

He was sentenced on Friday April 29 to 20 years imprisonment with a five-year extended licence.

The court heard that police were called to reports of a man assaulted on Parsloes Avenue in Dagenham on August 8 last year.

Henry attacked a 36-year-old man, stabbing him in the back of the head, the chest and slitting his throat twice.

The victim was taken by the London Ambulance Service to the Royal London Hospital where he was treated for head, neck and facial injuries and remained in hospital for around four weeks.

BRUTAL: Tony Henry

A Met Police spokesman said that the victim has been discharged but continues to suffer the lasting physical and psychological effects of the attack.

Henry was arrested on September 26 on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm and was charged the following day with attempted murder.

Detective Constable Elena Midlane, from Barking and Dagenham CID, said: "This heinous attack was committed in broad daylight on a busy main road with many members of public going about their daily business. The victim received extensive injuries both physically and emotionally.

"Tony Henry is a violent and volatile man who will now spend a considerable period of time behind bars. Even to this day he has not shown remorse, and following Henry's not guilty plea, the victim was forced to attend court and relive the harrowing attack whilst giving evidence.

"He can now be assured that following a thorough investigation, justice has been served and this dangerous offender will no longer be a risk to the public."

Death crash appeal

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a man died in a road collision in Dagenham.

Officers were called by the London Ambulance Service (LAS) at around 4.50pm on Friday April 29 to reports of a motorbike colliding with a minibus on Wood Lane at the junction with Boxoll Road.

The male pillion passenger, believed to be aged in his 20s, was pronounced dead at the scene.

Next of kin have been informed and police are awaiting formal identification and results of a post-mortem examination.

The male rider, also aged in his 20s, was taken by ambulance to an east London hospital where he remains in a stable condition.

Detectives from the Met's Roads and Transport Policing Command said the driver of the minibus stopped at the scene, but that they are still continuing their investigations. There have been no arrests.

Anyone with information is asked to contact the Serious Collision Investigation Unit on 020 8597 4874.

SIXTH-FORMERS WILD ABOUT NEW BUILDING

WORK is underway on a new sixth form building at Debden Park High School, Loughton. Year 12 students currently have to share space in the main school building.

Students are having a say on the fixtures and fittings in the building, which will include eight classrooms, a study area, common room, office accommodation and toilets.

Head Boy Maclove Ohemeng, year 11, said: "It's great. The building will provide a place for independent study - that's what the sixth form is all about."

Squirrels rated top class

AN INFANT school in Romford has maintained its Ofsted rating of 'good'.

Squirrels Heath Infant School, in Salisbury Road, received the findings in a report published on Monday.

In a letter to headteacher Julie White, inspector Mary Hinds described how 'stability in staffing' had been secured thanks to seven new teachers joining the school this academic year.

She said: "Since your appointment in April 2014, you have built a team of highly motivated staff who share your aspirations and drive to make sure children learn well and thrive."

The school was rated as good in its previous Ofsted report in July 2011.

Yellow Advertiser photographer Martin Dalton visited the school and took the photos of pupils on pages 6 and 7.

Council secures fire safety gong

BARKING and Dagenham Council has received a commendation award for its commitment to fire safety for vulnerable adults.

Councillor Saima Ashraf, deputy leader of the council, accepted the Bernadette Hartley Memorial Commendation award for the council's 'invaluable work in supporting and promoting the wider use of fire sprinklers'.

The London Fire Brigade nominated the council after they retrofitted sprinkler systems in Millicent Preston, George Crouch and Ted Henham Court extra care schemes, as well as Dunchurch House sheltered scheme.

Councillor Ashraf said: "I was honoured to accept this award on behalf of the council. Naturally, anything that can be done to prevent a fire is a great thing, so should the worst happen these sprinkler systems are an effective way of suppressing the fire quickly, helping safeguard some of our most vulnerable adults who are considered to be most at risk from fire."

Ian Bailey, north east London fire safety manager, said: "At the London Fire Brigade we have been very impressed by Barking and Dagenham's

L-R: Ian Bailey, north east London fire safety manager; councillor Saima Ashraf, deputy leader of Barking and Dagenham Council; Stephen Loynes, design co-ordinator (housing), Barking and Dagenham Council; and Francesco La Torre, estates service manager, Barking and Dagenham Council pro-active response to the challenge of retro-fitting sprinklers and I'm very pleased with their continued commitment to protecting vulnerable people in the borough."

The council's commitment to fire safety has also meant that all new-build bungalows are fitted with a sprinkler system as standard. It is also retro-fitting sprinkler systems to the bin stores of high-rise blocks of flats.

Councillor Ashraf added:

"Fire safety is very important, and while the council is doing all it can to help the most vulnerable it is important that as individuals we do as much as we can to help ourselves."

"The London Fire Brigade has some great advice on its website and offers home fire safety visits for 'high risk' people."

Successful Prince's Trust team look set for bright futures

YOUNG people from across north east London have completed the Prince's Trust Team programme at Waltham Forest College.

The group of 15 started back in February and have now gained a nationally recognised certificate in employment, teamwork and community skills, which has helped some of them to secure work and start a full-time or part-time course at the college.

Parents and friends attended the final team task where the students spoke about their inspiring stories during a presentation evening.

During the programme, the group went on a one-week residential trip to the Downe Activity Centre in Orpington, Kent, along with carrying out two weeks' work experience with employers at the Conrad Hotels & Resorts and the Metropolitan Police Specialist Training Centre in Gravesend.

The group also took part in CV and interview workshops, as well as community projects where they raised more than £400 and donated the majority of the proceeds to Haven House Children's Hospice.

Abdulmalik Miloudi, one of

SUCCESS: Some of the students who completed the Prince's Trust team programme

the students who completed the programme, said: "The activities and challenges were like a metaphor of the programme – keep climbing higher and higher until you succeed."

Thais Verhasselt, Prince's Trust team leader at the college, said: "We had the highest success rate on this programme."

"We now have a number of students going into employment and further education as a result of completing the programme. They all bonded well and supported each other during their time on the course."

The Prince's Trust Team Programme is free to anyone aged 16 to 25 and not in work or education.

The next team programme is scheduled to start on Monday, May 16. Visit waltham.ac.uk for further information on how to apply, or contact Zawdie Mascoll on 020 8501 8192 or email zawdie.mascoll@waltham.ac.uk.

Mazda 3 stands out in crowded market

By John Murdoch

THE handsome Mazda 3 recently became an even more attractive option with the introduction of a new 1.5-litre diesel engine.

Until the start of the year the only diesel you could specify in the 3 was the powerful 2.2-litre borrowed from the much larger 6 family saloon. That engine delivered power but its size meant the 3 was at a disadvantage compared to its rivals.

With the new smaller unit, first introduced in the Mazda 2 supermini, the 3 is now able to match its competitors in a busy sector.

Now in its third generation the 3 offers bold looks, excellent handling and superb build quality.

The Mazda's style helps it to stand out from some of the other offerings in the compact family car sector and it also offers bags of standard equipment, good performance and a comfortable upmarket interior.

There is a clear family resemblance to the Mazda 6 and most of its design cues are taken from the larger saloon with its swooping curves and sharp creases. Its low roof and rising waistline give it a sporty stance and it is a looker from every angle.

All versions of the 3 get alloy wheels and body-coloured door handles and mirrors, and some models get xenon headlamps and LED running lights while sport models also benefit from larger 18-inch alloys.

Inside the quality is excellent with soft-

A LOOKER: Mazda 3 1.5 Sport Nav Fastback

touch materials where they should be and the dashboard is neat with good features.

The rev counter and fuel gauge are digital and this model also had a head-up display on top of the dash.

All models get a seven-inch touchscreen for the infotainment and sat-nav system which is an option on cheaper models.

There is plenty room for four adults to travel in real comfort and five would be fine for shorter journeys. Unlike many of its competitors the Mazda 3 is available as a five-door hatchback or as a fastback, which is a four-door saloon and in my opinion better looking. In this country the hatch will be the volume model but both are available in a selection of engines and trims.

This car was the fastback featuring all Mazda's fuel efficient SKYACTIV technology and the new 1.5-litre diesel which is good for 105ps. The engine is very quiet, as well as being frugal, and features stop/start technology.

It is linked to a slick six-speed gearbox and the handling is agile with loads of grip and excellent body control. The steering is sharp and direct and the 3 is a fine driver's car.

The ride is smooth and the suspension deals well with even the poorest surfaces.

It is a quiet cruiser on motorways and fun on twisty back roads.

The 3 enjoys a five-star Euro NCAP safety rating and all models get six airbags, stability control and a city safe low-speed collision system as standard. Top models also get automatic lights and wipers plus parking sensors.

The boot is not huge but there are plenty of storage areas in the cabin and with rear seats folded the hatch version offers a substantial 1,263 litres.

Mazda has a solid reputation for reliability which helps it appeal to private buyers and fleet customers. Prices start at £17,095 and in Sport Nav trim costs £21,945.

For that you get the larger alloys, an adaptive front lighting system, front fogs with chrome surrounds, a reversing camera and front and rear parking sensors. You also get the head-up display, and a premium Bose sound system with nine speakers, DAB radio plus sat nav. In a crowded market the 3 stands out for its blend of style, economy and quality and it is certainly worth consideration.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "(T)" etc. in the advertisement.
- The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
  - Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
  - Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
  - Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
- The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to alter an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
  - Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
  - Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
- Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime from the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability for the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
- Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
- All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
- Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.
- Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
- Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

RAY'S READY FOR MOVE TO NEW STADIUM

Football

By Brian Jeeves

sport@yellowad.co.uk

HOLLYWOOD Star and icon of British film and television, Ray Winstone, has always confessed his love of West Ham United.

The 59-year-old, who has starred in cult classics such as Scum, Sexy Beast, Love Honour and Obey, as well as the 2012 action drama The Sweeney, spoke to the Yellow Advertiser about all things West Ham ahead of a specially arranged match between the legends of England and Germany to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the hosts World Cup success of 1966.

"My earliest match day memories came after the 1965/66 season," Winstone said. "Before that I don't think I'd ever come to the Boleyn Ground. I can't really remember that far back. My first memory was standing at the bottom of my street at Caistor Park Road, Plaistow. We would watch the coach go by and were all blowing bubbles as kids."

"I guess that's where it was born. I became a West Ham fan, it was my manor, where I'm from. So for me, my earliest memories are probably about 1964 at the bottom of my street, not the ground."

He added: "It doesn't matter where you go, you could even be on the other side of the world in Australia or in a desert, but you can still pick the paper up and find the West Ham result. It's not necessarily the team so much, it's because this is your home, it's where you're from."

match day memories, but he believes that helped him to embrace the Hammers move to the Olympic Stadium.

"My memories of the ground have kind of faded now because the one we are standing in now is not the stadium I went to when I was a kid. That went a few years ago when we moved the stands and the pitch was in a different place."

"Because of this, the move [to the Olympic Stadium] is not so disastrous for me. I'm looking forward to the move. I live 1.2 miles from this ground. I'll probably be 1.2 miles from the ground the other way at Stratford, so for me it's a 'must' if this club needs to progress."

Winstone continued: "It's great after 57, 58 or 59 years of being a West Ham fan, being an optimist, the pain and the glory every now and then. But if we are going to stay in the Premier League and try to win some trophies, then we need to move to a bigger ground."

"I think it holds 34,000 here, they've sold the tickets for the new stadium and they could have sold them two or three times over, that shows you the fanbase of this club. More people will get to see them – it's fantastic."

Winstone spoke about some of his favourite Hammers players, as well as his great uncle, Frank Richardson, who represented the club almost a century ago.

"I've got many favourites. Obviously Bobby Moore, Geoff Hurst, Alan Devonshire and Billy Bonds, those players through the years I've loved so much."

"I loved little Joe Cole and what about some of the centre forwards we've had over the years, Hurst, 'Pop' Robson."

"My great uncle, Frank Richardson, played for West Ham in the 1924/25 season. It was the year after we'd got beaten in the first ever FA Cup Final at Wembley."

"He played at Upton Park as a centre forward. We've got links all the way back from my mum's side of the family."

Lifelong Hammer Winstone was at the Boleyn Ground to manage a Three Lions side that included Boleyn favourites such as the Ferdinand brothers, Dean Ashton, Trevor Sinclair, John Moncur, David James and Teddy Sheringham, and was clearly in awe of the stars who had given up their time to take part in the match.

"I know football from the stands, watching it. We are all managers in the stands. But looking around at some of the people we've got playing; David James, Peter Beardsley, what a player Dean Ashton would have been, I'm sure, one of the great centre forwards for this country. Rio Ferdinand and his brother Anton, West Ham boys. I also watched Trevor Sinclair for years, it's quite an honour to be around them, so I'm just going to let them play."

"God help them if they come back in and they've lost though!"

Despite his tongue-in-cheek words of warning, it was the Germans, skipped by former Chelsea midfielder Michael Ballack, who took the honours with a resounding 7-2 victory.

Non-league round-up

Brilliant Braintree make play-offs

BRAINTREE Town's fairytale National League campaign continued as the Iron saw off Altrincham 3-0 at Cressing Road to cement their place in the play-offs and give themselves a shot at a place in the Football League.

In front of a season's biggest crowd of 1,803, Michael Cheek bagged a first half brace while Mitch Brundle added a third as Braintree condemned Altrincham to the drop and set up a two-legged semi-final with Grimsby Town.

The Iron travel to Blundell Park for the first leg on Thursday, May 5 (7.45pm), before concluding the tie at Cressing Road on Sunday, May 8 (3pm).

Braintree finished the regular season in their highest ever league placing of third.

After the game, striker Kenny Davies said: "To get into the play-offs is a massive achievement – it's what dreams are made of. We've got belief, good management, team spirit and all the character you need. We believed from day one that we were good enough as a team to challenge."

In the National League South, Ben Greenhalgh scored twice as Concord Rangers ended another satisfying campaign with a 2-2 draw at Maidenhead United. Dave Tarpey and Dean Inman were on target for the home side. But Chelmsford City completed their league programme with a 2-0 defeat against relegated Basingstoke at the Melbourne Stadium. Louie Soares and George Bennett grabbed the visitors' goals in front of a largely disappointed crowd of 931.

In the Ryman League Division One North play-off final a Piers Wixon brace helped Harlow Town to a 3-1 success over AFC Hornchurch. George Purcell reduced the deficit for the Urchins from the penalty spot, but a spectacular Layne Eadie goal saw the home side promoted in front of a bumper crowd.

Clapton lifted the Essex Senior League's Gordon Brasted Memorial Trophy with a resounding 4-0 victory over Stansted at Burnham Ramblers' Leslie Field ground. A decent turnout of 322 spectators saw Warren Hughes Mfula, Roddy Lemba, Euan Taylor-Reid and Miles Hunter find the net for the Old Spotted Dog club.

Elsewhere in the ESL Hullbridge Sports edged out Tower Hamlets 3-2 at Lower Road, while a Christy O'Donoghue hat-trick helped Southend Manor to a 7-0 triumph over Greenhouse Sports at Southchurch Park Arena.

In the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League, Premier Division Kelvedon Hatch were comfortable 4-0 winners at Newbury Forest and there were away successes for Springfield, 2-1 at Newham United, and Buckhurst Hill, 2-0 at Rayleigh Town. May & Baker EC saw off Frenford Senior by the odd goal in three, while Harold Wood Athletic won an entertaining contest with Bishop's Stortford Swifts 3-2.

In Division One, Hutton won 3-2 at Runwell Hospital, while Snaresbrook were 3-1 winners over Old Southendian. Great Baddow were the big hitters in Division Two, hammering Westhamians 8-2 and there was a terrific encounter at Lakeside where visitors Rochford Town won a 5-3 thriller.

Catholic United also picked up maximum points, winning by a single goal at FC Hamlets.

Orient regain some pride as season approaches disappointing end

Leyton Orient 1 Mansfield Town 0 By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

ORIENT restored some pride after former Stags striker Ollie Palmer came back to haunt his old club with the only goal of a keenly fought, although ultimately meaningless, contest on Saturday.

With both sides failing to stay in the hunt for play-off spots, a strong finish to the season was the least expected and Andy Hessenthaler gave youth a chance, with scholar Aron Pollock starting at centre-back and a later to be substituted, Sandro Semedo, filling in for the injured Jobi McAnuff.

The Stags justified their higher league standing and thought they had taken a fourth minute lead when Emmanuel Dieseruvwe converted Malvind Benning's cross but the O's were saved by an offside flag.

The O's hit back and Palmer, continually barracked by the travelling contingent, should have put the O's ahead on 11 minutes, but was unable to beat Scott Shearer from only a yard out.

The east Midlands then took charge and Cisak made a hash of Benning's 20th minute cross, only for Dieseruvwe to head wide of a gaping goal.

On a rare attack, Semedo's sublime long pass found top scorer Jay Simpson who was just feet away from giving the O's an undeserved lead.

Sammy Moore was a straight tactical half-time swap for Nigel Atangana, and the change almost reaped instant dividends with the schemer involved in the move that led to Palmer hitting the base of Shearer's post from the restart. It was third time lucky for the industrious Palmer who netted three minutes later meeting stand-in skipper Lloyd James's deep cross and giving Shearer no chance from point-blank range.

The Stags were inches from levelling when Lambe rattled Cisak's bar, before Krystian Pearce bundled the ball home, but the O's were again saved by the assistant's flag.

The O's endured sustained late Mansfield pressure and despite five minutes' stoppage time, the east Londoners held out, to leave Hessenthaler admitting: "I told the lads with this being the last home game to go out and do it the right way and to get a win – and we did that."

Orient end the season at lowly Yeovil Town this Saturday (kick-off 3pm).
